2. [REDACTED] Met with Mrs. Eleanor Lechart, Personal Assistant to Senator John J. Williams (D., Del.), and delivered to her at the Senator's request General Counsel letter conveying the cost figures for renovation of [REDACTED]. Senator Williams thanked me by telephone from the Senate floor and indicated that he wanted to review the matter before meeting with me and would call me during the day tomorrow if he desires further information on this subject. The Senator's office was most considerate in their apology concerning the inability of the Senator to meet with me during the past two days.

3. [REDACTED] I met with Miss Kay Flanagan, Appointment Secretary to Congressman George P. Miller (D., Calif.), Chairman of the House Science and Astronautics Committee. Miss Flanagan indicated that the Chairman is just now on his way back from California but that if I would call around 9:30 in the morning, she would try to arrange for an appointment during the day. Meeting with Chairman Miller is desired to extend the Director's desire to meet with him should he so desire for briefing on the Soviet space program.
